

To meet Mr. and Mrs. Holden there was one of pleasure throughout, and the outlook for the coming days is so bright that society is already looking into the future through rose-colored glasses.

The week will start out merrily tomorrow with a function at the Altaclub, given by Mrs. Elgin Travis, Tuesday Miss Crawford will be the hostess of an afternoon affair given in honor of Mrs. Albert F. Holden. Thesday evening Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Druchl will be at home to their friends after May 1 at the Caradon of the Caradon and those who will assist at her wedding on Thurschiy.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Stephen Lynch and Mrs. Roselter sive a Kensing week with Mr. and Mrs. Roselter sive a Kensing week with Mr. and Mrs. Roselter sive a Kensing week with Mr. and Mrs. Stephen and Mrs. Roselter sive a Kensing week with Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Druchl will be at the Grand.

Miss Milier of Kentucky will spend the coming week with Mr. and Mrs. It was different and Mrs. Milier of Kentucky will spend the coming week with Mr. and Mrs. It was different with Mrs. And Mrs. Hayden and Mrs. Hayden and Mrs. Jessel Little will return from Ensemble. The members of the University club will give a farewell dinner to Mr. and Mrs. Holden before their departure for their new home in Clerchand. O. On Saturday Mrs. Lynch and Mrs. Roselter will give a second affair.

An important wedding—that of Miss Grave Anderson and Mr. Joseph Edgar Huntoon—is also scheduled for the roming week. The marriage will take place Thursday evening at the home of the brides parents on West Fifth South street. The wedding will be a guit one, only relatives and a few friends being present.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Toward and Mr. R. D. Sie Miss Jessie Toward and Mr. R. D. Sie Miss Jessie Toward and Mrs. S. V. Sheip have invitations our for Tuexday, May 2.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Taylor and Mr. St. D. Simmons will also take place on Thursday.

During her stay in the city, Mrs. Henroulin of Chicago was the recipient of many social attentions. Her son, Mr. Charles Henrotin, gave a dinner in the Alta club. Mr. and Mrs. Niedtinghaus gave an enloyable dinner at the Alta club Tuesday to the Alta club on Sunday evening. The table decorations of roses and ciolets were very beautiful. Covers were laid for twelve.

She was also the guest at a delightful luncheon given Tuesday by Mrs. W. A. Neiden. The guests were: Mrs. Henrotin, Mrs. J. C. Hoyle, Mrs. McDekey, Mrs. Charles B. Moore, Mrs. F. A. Vincent and Mrs. Weikely Mrs. W. A. Vincent and Mrs. Charles B. Moore, Mrs. F. A. Vincent and Mrs. Viewell Anderson has gone to Perchand for a month's visit with friends.

Among other prominent visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Niedringhaus of St. Louis. A number of the feativities of the week were planned as a special compliment to them. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. F. J. Fabian entertained forty friends at ton in handr of Mrs. Niedringhaus.

Friday aftermoon Mrs. W. G. Sharp gave an elaborate luncheon at the Aliachub in her honor. An exquisite burden for La France reses, surrounded by forms and emiliar, aderned the center of the table. Around it were seated Mrs. Niedringhaus, Mrs. Joseph H. Young, Mrs. Albert E. Tablan, Mrs. Albert

Mrs. J. Robinsen Welker, Mrs. Joseph H. Young,
C. Woodruff, Miss. Shearman, Miss.
Kimball and Mrs. P. J. Pabian.

Mrs. Albert Fairchild Holden was the sueet of honor at a daistily-appointed funcheon given Thursday by the Misse Osses Nasch. The table was decorated Haywood, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Miss. Wisse of La France roses occupied the center, while at either end candies in Dresden candiesticks shed a rosy light through silk shades.

To meet Mrs. Holden there were pressure.

Dresder candiesticks shed a rosy light through silk shades.

To mee! Mrs. Holden there were present aniversary of their marriage. The rooms were effectively decorated with H. Young, Mrs. Kussell C. Woodruff, Mrs. J. M. Bidwell, Miss Kimball, Miss Lowe, Miss Harkness.

Fred Hale Celebrated the University State of the New York 1988 of the Ne

George A. Lowe won the consolution prizes.

Present weret Major and Mrs. Downey. Mrs. Faber, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bancroft, Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lowe, Dr. and Mrs. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Eusene Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kerr. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Neiden, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rice. Dr. and Mrs. Hough, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glendining, Dr. Bascom, Dr. Lindsay, and Mr. Wieks.

ond prizes, and Mrs. Hough and Mr. George A. Lowe won the consolation

Hough, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glendinning. Dr. Bascom, Dr. Lindsay, and Mr. Wieks.

Dr. Bascom, Dr. Lindsay, and Mrs. Weeks.

Dr. Bascom, Dr. Lindsay, and Mrs. Weeks.

Mrs. Megeath and Miss Lane entertained at cards Monday evening and Tuesday afternoon. The parlors were prettily decorated with roses, carnations and ferns. "Sixty-three" was played at both entertainments. On Monday evening prizes were won by Mrs. Whitney, Miss Gussie Sawyer, Judge Bowman and Mr. A. B. Sawyer, Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. Marsh were the successful contestants.

Mrs. Susie B. Emery gave a theatre discontinuation of the prediction will meet Thursday and Mrs. Marsh were the successful contestants.

Mrs. Susie B. Emery gave a theatre

Mrs. Susic B. Emery gave a theatre party Thursday evening. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ferry, Miss Bransford and Mr. J. T. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sherman will re-turn from the east the latter part of the week. Mrs. Bert Seaboldt has gone to San

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sharp will take possession of their new home on Brigham street on Tuesday.

The last dance of the assembly series took place at Christensen's Tuesday evening. The affair was the most enjoyable one of the series. One hundred guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Niedringhaus gave a theatre party Thursday evening, followed by supper at the Knutsford, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Fabian, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sharp were their guests.

Miss Alice M. Wright was pleasantly surprised by a number of friends on Westnesday evening. Among those present were: The Misses Alice Budd, Luttlewood, Road, Mesers, Wright, Wilkinson, Bowen and Rogendahi.

Miss Connie McAllister entertained at Miss Connie McAllister entertained at cards Tuesday evening. Prizes were wen by Miss Sheets, Mr. Brown, Miss Hammer and Mr. Wiggins. Among those present were: The Misses Lucille Rossiter, Eva Sheets, Grace Stringfel-low, Lyle Sheets, Bird Sheets, Magnie McKeever, Hattie McKellar, Agnes Hammer, Mrs. Reeves and Emma Gab-bott Messix. G. Rossiter, B. Brown, H. Wiggins, C. Peterson, Ollic McAllister, W. J. Reeves, Shilling and C. Reader, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Druehl will be at home to their friends after May 1 at the Grand.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hoge have moved to 1349 South Tenth East street, where Mrs. Hoge is at home to her friends on Thursdays.

Mr. Henry McCornick left Wednesday for Custer, Ida.

Miss Piscus of Chicago is visiting Miss Louis Odell.

Mr. G. W. E. Dorsey entertains this evening at dimer at the Alta club.

Miss Mabel Anderson has gone to Portland for a month's visit with Doscher.

The marriage of Miss Clara Holt and Mr. Frank Virtue was quietly celebrated in Ogden on Tuesday. For the present, Mr. and Mrs. Virtue will be at home to their friends in this city at 19 South State street.

Miss Middred Elast was survised by a number of friends on Wellnesday evening.

a number of Themas on evening.
Among those present were the Misses Mary Gallacher, Amy Chase, Addie Adms, Pearl Wright, Hope Candland, Minnie Hardy, Messrs, Edmonds, Hitton, Chase, Campbell, Brown and

The dance given Thursday evening by the Royal Arch Masons was a success-ful affair.

The Clover Leaf club met Friday evening at the home of Miss Inex Peak. The Misses Howat entertained Wednesday evening, in honor of Miss Fiscus of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones announce the engagement of their daughter, Eliz-abeth, to Mr. Lawrence Bean of Provo. The wedding will take place next Wed-nesday.

lor, Kate and Minnie Anderson, Ollie Myerz, Cora B. Cady and Mrs. Putnam, Mesurs. Henry Coulan, Ir., F. N. Stanser, Joseph E. Hicks, W. C. Eyans, Max Brodle and Dr. E. M. Keysor.

Miss Orrilla Parrish of Centerville, who has been visiting for the pass week with her sister, Mrs. T. F. Howells, will leave for her home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Woodruff have moved to 329 South Third street.

of the best things in his most popular writings.

Airs Rankin in presenting a clearly defined outline of the philanthroom work of Rato Douglass Wisgin, strengthened the conviction of every mother that whatever we do for the children yields rich returns.

"Folly Oliver's Problem," "Penelope's Progress," and "Timothy's Quest's were ably reviewed, as was also the life and literary career of Mrs. Wisgin.

All that is meant by song, even unto the encore, was graciously supplied by Mrs. Edward Perkins Clarke.

Mrs. Frank Towne read a brief sketch of the bothood and college days of Francis Marion Crawford. Mr. Crawford in the self-made man. The writer conveyed the impression that this wielder of the self-made man. The writer conveyed the impression that this wielder of the facile pen was literally forced into literature, that "Mr. Isaacs" was a mere felicilous circumstance which had it been left to the author alone, would not have been pushed and would accordingly never have induced the famous issue.

Although the session had been crowded to the full an interns interest attended the reading of Mrs. Wilkinson's paper on "Raiph Wando Emerson."

Although the session had been crowded to the full an interns interest attended the reading of Mrs. Wilkinson's paper on "Raiph Wando Emerson."

Mrs. Wilkinson gave a rare estimate of the exalted and isolated personellar of the immortal American. The comparison of Emerson with the "Man of Sorrows was impressive and original, Mrs. Ressie Dean Allison led the company in the singing of "Hall Columbia, Happy Land." after which the club adjourned to conven again on any 2 at the home of Mrs. Joel Chandler Bent, 2011 Madison avenue.

At a pleasant surprise party given Wednesday evening in honor of Master Donald Ellis Rhivers the following were guests: Emma Unsworth, Leona Ballantyne Georre Ensign, Evan Evans, Blaine Snyder, Dell Porter, Glen Pardo, Ida Christensen, Eddie Christensen, Gwall Jackson.

Justice Wardleigh Lata Monday afternoon united Miss Tillie Henderson and which finished a very successful and profitable year.

The club has made a careful study of "Architecture," "Shakespeare," "Education," and "London,"

The English Home of the Stuart Period' was the subject treated by Mrs. Julia Taylor, and current events were reviewed by Mrs. May P. Movie. The remainder of the 2ternoon was occupied by citch business.

Tuesday, April 25, will be a business meeting, when the annual election of officers will occur.

Ladies' Literary Club.

The U. W. P. C. will meet Saturday at 7:30 o'clock, xoom 208, Templeton. at 7:30 o'clock room 203, Templeton.
The programme will be:
Quotations From Mrs. Heman's
Poem-By Mrs. Laoy Clark.
Indian Relies and Traditions of the Red Man-By Mrs. L. S. Dickinson.
Cliff Dwellers-By Mrs. Rhodes-will be repeated.
Scenry In Southern Utah and Indian Customs-Mrs. Mary Freeze.
After which refreshments will be served.

Onk Leaf Club.

Social society was called for last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Emma Green, where all unfinished business was settled. After meeting, games were played and a very enjoyable time was spent by all present. Next Thursday evening the society will meet at the realisence of Miss Aunie Boag, 32 Green street.

Clover Leaf Club.

The next regular meeting of the Clo. ver Leaf club will be held Friday evening, April 28, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Jones, 231 Third East street. The programme for the evening is as follows:

cards Tuesday evening. Prizes were won by Miss Sheets, Mr. Brown, Miss Hammer and Mr. Wiggins. Among those present were. The Misses Lucille Rossiter, Eva Sheets, Graze Stringfellow, Lyle Sheets, Bird Sheets, Magrie McKeever, Hattie McKellar, Agnes Hammer, Mrs. Reeves and Emma Gabbot; Messers G. Resalter, B. Brown, H. Wiggins, C. Peterson, Ollie McAllister, W. J. Reeves, Shilling and C. Reader, W. J. Reeves, Shilling and C. Reader, W. J. Reeves, Shilling and C. Reader, Mrs. Julia Taylor entertained the Sewing olub on Wednessiay afternoon, The members will be the guests of Mrs. Rudon S. Wells next Wednesday.

Mrs. J. D. Spencer's, 31 North States (1340 South Tenth East street, where Mrs. Hoge is at home to her friends on Thursdays.

The Opal Club.

The Opal club is preparing for the coming season, and the indications for Mr. Henry McCornick left Wednes, day for Custer, Ida.

Miss Fiscus of Chicago is visiting Miss Louie Odell.

Mrs. Holman left for the east on Wednesday.

The Misses Howat gave an enjoyable Kansington yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Miller of Kentucky.

Those who enjoyed the afternoon were Miss Kathleen Anderson, Miss Welby, Miss Bird, Miss Odell, Miss Josie Kutz, Miss Phattle Jennings, Miss Beesley, Miss Dally Mrs. Vivian McCune and Miss Hattle Jennings, Miss Beesley, Miss Dally Mrs. Vivian McCune and Miss Hampton.

Mrs. O. D. Brown gave a delightful children's party on Monday afternoon in honor of her little danghter's sixth birthday. Games were played, and later dainty refreshments were served on the lawn.

inter dainty refreshments were served on the lawn.

Those present were Lily Doscher, Margaret Burrows, Margaret Allen, Violet Angel, Evelyn Moyle, Huldarose Brown, Richard Jennings, Edward Jennings, Arthur Berryman, Charles Berryman, Harcid Burrows and Carl Boscher.

The marriage of Miss Clara Holt and Mr. Frank Virtue was quietly celevity.

Mound Fort was given a pleasant surprise Monday evening, the affair being arranged by his wife and was a very pleasant one. A tasteful lumb was sorved and prizes were awarded by Mr. Westover and Mrs. Redfield. Mrs. Custead and Mr. Critchiow. The guests were: Messrs, and Mesdames W. N. Pierce, C. N. Custead, H. W. Murdock, William Redfield, Jesse Stratford, P. C. Westover, Stephens, Mrs. Bowman, Misses Anderson, Chlora Murdock, Miss Julia Cole, Messrs, Charles Critchiow, Anderson, Holinson.

George W. Goddard is up from Salt art, Epsy Pace, to did Stewart, Belle Warner, as Beevley, Messre, Scott, Stewart John Stewart. Brig Johnson, who resigned from the city council last Monday night, owing to his removal from the First to the Second ward, was tendered a pleasant party by his friends Thursday evening in the First ward social hall.

Mrs. J. C. Jones went to Eureka on Thursday to attend to her nicce, a daughter of Herbert Slade, who is ser-iously iii.

PROVO SOCIETY. (Special Correspondence.)

Friday, April 21, with President Mrs. W. J. Bonham in the chair.
Roll call was responded to by quotations.

Miss Keilogg reviewed "The Devel-opment of the Child," edited by Nathan Oppenheim, bringing out particu-larly the data of individual develop-

Civb adjourned to meet in one week

eancy.
Miss Dickenson gave a sy

news of the week

Mrs. Fred Nelson is visiting friends Miss Emma Ramsay of Salt Lake is visiting friends and relatives in Provo.

of the best things in his most popular writings.

Mrs. Rankin in presenting a clearly defined outline of the philanthropic work of Kate Douglass Wiggin, Strengthened the conviction of every mother that whatever we do for the chidren yields rich returns.

"Folly Oliver's Problem." Penelope's Progress, and "Timothy's Quest" were ably reviewed, as was also the life and literary carrear of Mrs. Wiggin.

All that is meant by song, even unto the conce, was graciously supplied by Mrs. Edward Perkins Clarke.

Miss. Frank Town read a brief sketch of the borhood and college days of Francis Marion Crawford. Mr. Crawford's lineage is an added proof of the advantage which the man of family has, other things being equal, over the self-made man. The writer conveyed the impression that this wielder of the facile pen was literally forced into life end of the pull and that wielder of the facile pen was literally forced into life end of the pull and the would accordingly never have induced the famous lisue.

Although the session had been crowded to the full an intense indiverse at full to the author alone, would not have been pushed and would accordingly never have induced the famous lisue.

Although the session had been crowded to the full an intense indives a full red to the fall to the author alone, would not bave been pushed and would accordingly never have induced the famous lisue.

Although the session had been crowded to the full an intense intervest affected the reading of Mrs. Wilkinson's before any wilking music.

Wednesday were in studying music.

Wednesday were in studying music.

Wednesday was apprise was graphic was apprise was graphic such fall to A. Bisrney by a host of friends, The affair was a complete surface such fall the same of friends at the fall that is a surface.

Progress, In the fall that the fall that is meant by song, even unto the fall that is meant by song, even unto the fall that is meant by song, even the such fall that is meant by song, even the such fall that is meant by song, even the such fall yestorday.

Justice A. A. Noon was in Salt Lake

Mrs. Joseph Farrer entertained at tea yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. H. J. Richards, who leaves next Monday for Salt Lake City, where she will reside in the friture.

Those present were: Meslames H. J. Richards, G. W. Taylor, Lafayette Holbrook, S. S. Jones, D. A. Swan, Joseph Beck, W. H. Berry, Jesse Smith, Joseph A. Buttle, William Strong.

Thursday night a number of friends invaded the home of Mrs. William P. Silver and sprung a most successful surprise on that lady. Dancing, cards, music, songs, refreshments and search.

and G. Saunders.

W

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. West were the recipients of a joliy surprise party Thursday evening. The guests were: Mrssrs, and Mesdames Wilson, Chapule, G. F. West, C. E. West, Bowen and Mann, Mesdames Anstin, Ledia West, Greenwell, Misses Ada Philip, and Ruby Wilson, Messrs, Freed Bowen, Will Purdy, E. Pichart, W. Hanley and R. Douglas.

and R. Douglas.

Mrs. E. M. Allison entertained Thursday afternoon about twenty guests.

♣ ♣ ♣

The Second ward people held carnival in their amusement hall Thursday and Friday. The first named day was the married people's remain, while the next day the younger people were on hand, closing the affair with a dance in the evening.

intes.

Mrs. M. M. Warner and Mrs. Fred Nelson were elected a committee to arrange for a sign on the club doors.
In the mothers section Mrs. D. D.
Houtz reviewed the work of the recent congress held in Salt Lake City, and gave an abseract, with comments, on her paper read before that body as the representative of the Sorosis.

Miss Lillian Gates was appointed librarian for the week.

The members of the club expressed their regret at the removal of Mrs. Edith I. Martin from Provo, and their

Mrs. Joseph Pingree gave a party Wednesday in honor of Miss Gertie Smith. A most deligniful evening was spent, the following being the guests: Misses Bertha Mattson, Lillian Lochhead, Inex Farr, Annie Baker, Crystal Carroll, Rusella Shields, Pearl Williams, Annette Salmon, Alice Miller and Moille Webb; Messers, Walter Williams, Fred Williams, Ira Decker, John McCarty, Willie Stevenson, Almo Horspool, W. J. Shurtliff, James Sprunt, F. C. Todd and Tom Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. John Powers and Mrs. Pingree.

The Deux Temps club will give their final dancing party of the season at the Union Opera House the 25th inst. best wishes for success in her stu-in the east and at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Averits.

Mrs. W. O. Beesley delivered a lecture on "Ben-Hur."

A select reading was given by Mrs. Mercey Peary.

On account of the absence of Mrs. Hannah Tucker parliamentary drill was not taken through.

Twelve members answered to roll call.

The resignation of Mrs. M. M. Kellogg as vice president was accepted, and Mrs. Buckler chosen to fill the vacall.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Vina Cluff.

Hattie Pike gave a pretty recitation.

The Misses Rhoda and Jenette Richards left Provo Tuesday for Salt Lake, where they will reside in the fu-

Miss Margarette Peterson, a B. Y. academy student, left today for her home in the northern part of the state, being called home on account of the serious illness of her mother.

Miss Vinn Peterson of the B. Y. academy left for her home in Kayswille this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beardsley, late of Helper, are sojourning at present at Los Angeles, and as soon as school is out will go to Honolulu, accompanied by a son who is now at college in the east. They will be absent about a year on the islamit.

Mrs. H. A. Nelson of Castlegate is visiting relatives in Price this week, where the solution of Mrs. B. R. McDonald, her signest of Mrs. B. R. McDonald, her signest of Mrs. B. R. McDonald, her signest of Mrs. B. R. McDonald, her signest, and will be here ten days or two weeks.

Mrs. Mabei Moore of Orangeville was in Price Monday, en route home from a short visit to friends at Sait Lake, Wedwere last evening a delightful party was given in the Provo best of school.

A plonic party and dance was given in the Third ward last evening by the Relief society.

John Hunt, president of the May Day Mining company, was presented in the Trid ward last evening by the Relief society.

John Hunt, president of the May Day Mining company, was to the Relief society.

The Utah Sorocis methods to Colorado.

The Utah Sorocis methods a service of the May Day her by the Proce of the colorado.

The Utah Sorocis methods a service of the May Day her by the Proce of the colorado.

The Utah Sorocis methods a service of the May Day her by the Proce of the colorado.

The Utah Sorocis methods a service of the May Day her by the Proce of the benefit of the sunday school and will be repeated to night.

Miss Mary Leonard and Marcheria.

Miss Mary Leonard and Marcheria and electrical to the sunday school and will be repeated to night.

The Utah Sorocis methods a service of the May Day her by the Proce Damathe company, was presented last evening to a packed house. If was for the benefit of the sunday school and will be repeated to night.

Miss Mary Leonard and Marcheria and electrical to the sunday school and will be repeated to night.

The Utah Sorocis methods a service of the May Day her by the Proce Damathe company, was presented last evening to a packed house of the May Day Mining company, stopped in Provo a few house today on his return from a hort business trip to Colorado.

(Special Correspondence.) Ephraim, April 22.—John Thompson of Sterling, formerly a resident of this

. . . Miss Elvena Rasmussen completed her term of school at Mojnroe and ar-rived home the last of the week.

Mrs. Swensen and her daughter Marfina came home from Salt Lake City
Thursday, where they had been to attend the funeral of Miss Mario Swensen, who was buried a short time ago.

Mrs. Maria Tygerson, an old resident of this city, left this week for Diaz, Mexico, to join her husband, who has been in that country for a number of years.

proving now.

⊕ ⊕ ⊕

Frank Christensen, the popular leader of our orchestra and choir, has a music class at Chester and makes regular visits to that thriving burg.

Lehi Peterson, John Dorins, jr., Ed-win Dorins and Ras Hansen went to Denver this week.

week,

Jacob N. Jacobsen was a Manti vis, lior Tuesday,

Miss Maude Bliss returned home

H. J. Fram and family of Richneld were the guests of Parity Peterson's family for a few days this week.

Miss Cardle Peterson visited friends in Sait Lake City the first of the week.

Mrs. Rosa Kienke, wife of George Kienke, the Salt Lake commission merchant, came down from the city this week. Mrs. Kienke is a daughter of President Houry Beal of this city.

Mrs. John Erickson of Fish Haven, Ida., was in town this week. Mrs. Erickson has been a resident of this city for many years, until about three years ago, when the family moved to Idaho. She says the city has made wonderful improvement since she was hero last.

Saturday. She was accompanied by her brother, Mr. U. Griffin of Richmond,

A pleasant surprise party was given Mrs. Hannah Thompson Monday afternson. Mrs. Thompson's husband is absent on a mission, and it is customary for the ladies to get up these parties for missionaries wives. It was a very pleasant affair. The ladies had a splendid time and they presented Mrs. Thompson with a substantial token of their friendship before leaving.

Rev. John M. Hansen, pastor of the Methodist chape; here, is attending a ministers' meeting in Salt Lake this Twin babies were born to the wife of Peter Olsen Tuesday evening.

Miss Olivia Larsen, who is teaching school in the Meadowville district, came moved to 229 South Third street.

Mrs. R. S. Miller, Missess Edith Miller and Ida Walker will return on Monday from California. The Misses Allie and Margie Miller will remain in San Francisco until June.

The Sait Lake Woman's club will meet Tuesday afternoon next to brien to a paper by Mrs. M. A. Johnson, Friends of the club members are invited. The Cleofan.

The last programme of this season's work was given on Tuesday afternoon, which finished a very successful and Justice Wardleigh last Monday afternoon united Miss Tillie Henderson and Mr. Oscar J. Gutke in marriage. The ceremony occurred at the home of the bride's brother. The home of the groom is in Mexico, whither he will take his bonny bride, who will be followed by the best wishes of hosts of Ogden friends. Utah Woman's Press Club.

ite best wishes of nosts of Ogden friends.

Mrs. James Ballard entertained Wednesday evening. Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Thatcher, Gus Saunders and Miss Alice Maguire. Dancing was also induised in.

Messrs. and Mesdames Gibson, Meighan, Ledwidge, McCoy, Corsey, Costello, Johnson, Runyon, Carr. Badcon, Ford and Thatcher; Mesdames McKinney and Maguire, Misses Mary and Alice Maguire, Mand Lewis, Margaret Buchmiller, A. Burkett of Salt Lake, Lillie Oddison, Josephine Oddison and Florence Meighan, Messrs. W. D. Wedeli, J. Pierce, Mill Hall, C. F. Barratt, S. Clarke, Theo Lewis, F. Burt and G. Saunders.

Each member may bring an escort.

A special meeting of the Oak Leaf Social society was called for last Wed-

OGDEN SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Ogden, April 22.—Mr. Bowen of Mound Fort was given a pleasant surof the mothers' congress in Sait Lake City.

Professor G. H. Brimball gave a very Interesting lecture on the relationship between inbertiance, environment and iden. What it is to be well born, how to be well born, how to be well born, what great ideas shall be implanted in the minds of the children, and the environment necessary to secure the best results, were treated in a very sensible and practical way, and many good stagestions given.

The meeting in the Second ward will he held at the residence of Mrs. Wilkins Wednesday evening, May 2. The meeting next Wednesday, April 29, will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Young in the Fourth ward. At this meeting Professor Brimball will lecture on 'The Parents' Work in Forming the Likes and Dielikes of Children.' All are cordially invited to attend.

Lake visiting his parents.

The unnual meeting of La Coterie will be held next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Patron on Nob Hill. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Edith L Martin left Provo thi surprise on that lady. Dancing, cards, music, songs, refreshments and everything that goes to make an evening sociable was had.

Those present were: Messrs, and Mesdames E. H. Holt, Thomas Court, Mesdames A. N. Taylor, Sarah McConachis, Misses Alice Dixon, Florence Hoover, Louis Mathen, Sophita Smith, Millio Monk, May Taylor, Messrs Ernest Dixon, Walter Dixon, J. W. Dangerfield and Charles Broadburst.

Friday evening Miss May Alexander entertained a number of his friends

John Hunt, president of the May Day Mining company, stopped in Provo a few hours today on his return from a short business trip to Colorado.

The Utah Sorosis met Wedneeday with Vice President Mrs. Anna Craig in the chair.

Mrs. M. M. Warner conducted the parliamentary drill.

Mrs. Zina Smoot read a very interesting and instructive paper on "Our Congress as Compared with European Parliaments," in which she contrasted and criticised our laws and law-makers of today with the legislative bodies of other nations.

Mrs. D. D. Houz, Mrs. W. R. Pike of other nations.

Mrs. D. D. Houts, Mrs. W. R. Pike and Mrs. S. A. King were elected a committee to formulate a literary programme for an open session to be held Wednesday evening, May 12, at the home of Mrs. Pike.

A paper prepared by Mrs. Edith I. Martin on "Period of Spartian Superency" Peleponessian War-Spartin Civilization," was read by Miss. Lillian Gates.

The Fidelis met last Monday at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Clove. Mrs. Ellen Homer gave a review of United States history. Mrs. A. Eggertsen gave current

Provo. April 22.—The Nineteenth Century club held an interesting ses-tion at the home of Mrs. A. B. Searle

Mrs. S. A. Jewett of Petaluma, Cal., and Mrs. Nancy Lindsay, formerly of Provo, are visiting their sister, Mrs. William D. Roberts.

William D. Roberts

The following marriage licenses have been granted by the county clerk:
Samuel Morgan, aged 22, and Louise C. Sorensen, aged 21, both of Gosben.
Sylvester E. Clark, aged 22, of Glendale, Kane coupity, and Louis White, aged 24, of Pleasant Grove.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Reed Smoot entertained a large number of friends in the First ward social hall in honor of Lieutenant Grov, who recently returned from Mania, and who has been visiting friends in Provo this week. with Mrs. Suttoh.

The mothers' meeting held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Grey Wednesday evenling was very interesting and enjoyable. About thirty ladies and entlemen were present.

Mrs. Ida Duschberry gave a report

f the mothers' congress in Salt Lake and the matical colors predominating. Two is in town this week. Mrs. Taylor of Moab, Grand county, is a daughter of George P. Jensen, and who is the matical colors predominating. Two is in town this week. Mrs. Taylor is a daughter of George P. Jensen, and was formerly a resident of this city.

Mrs. Riggs returned to her home at Lake and Provo, and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Dancing was indulged in by both young and oid, a banquet was served, and then toasts went the rounds Mr. Smoot was toastmaster, and the following toasts, all particular and the following toasts, all particular and the following toasts, all particular and the secondary of the Peterson entertains by those where of the Very please by those where of the Very please by those where the professor of the Very please of th

Mothers of the Volunteers'
Susa Y, Gates
Battery B' John E, Booth
After the toasts the Misses Annie and wednesday evening a number of friends and relatives of Philip H. Beesley of the Second ward surprised that gentleman and spent the evening in a very enjoyable and sociable way. Those present were Messrs, and Mesdames Thomas Beesley, August Allen, Goorge Morrison, Thomas Beesley, Jr., W. O. Boesley, Mesdames Jane Biggs, Polly Roberts, Emma Builock, Methesa Stewart, Epsy Pace, Hammit Tucker, Misses Ida Stewart, Belle Warner, Marnie Beesley, Messrs Scott, Stewart and Beesley, Messrs Scott, Stewart and On one side of the hall, on a large able, was arranged a collection of rel-ces from the Philippine islands, belong-ing to Liettenant Groo. The collec-tion is a very interesting one, and com-crises among other things, an assort-ment of weapons used in war by the Pilipinos.

● ● ◆
Joseph Hatch of Heber is a visitor n the Garden City today.

Court Stenographer D. H. Roberts eaven for Heber teday to be in attend-ince at court opening their Monday.

Next Saturday evening Miss Katha-ine E. Oliver, B. S., a lady of world, ide fame as an impersonal or of Scotweeks.

Mrs. Louis Lowenstein and daughter,
Miss Ella, are at home after an absence of two weeks, visiting relatives at Salt Lake City.

Miss Stena Jensel will leave for Springville shortly to make her home in that city.

of sterling, formerly a resident of this city, was in town this week.

9 9

Miss Martina Mortensen, who has been visiting her sister in Salt Lake City for some time past, got home Frieday.

P. A. Paulsen, manager of the Manti, Messenger, was a visitor in the Junction City this week.

• • • • • • • • Andrew H. Hansen has obtained a situation at Gunnison.

Mrs. James Armstrong has been suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism for the past week. She is improving now.

• • • •

Sophus Obsen is over from Emery county reviving old acquaintances. Mr. Obsen is a brother of Mrs. Willard Pehrson of this city.

Enoch Jorgensen, principal of the Manti district schools, accompanied by his wife, visited with friends here this week.

Miss Mande Blass returned nome from her conference visit to Salt Lake City, Wednesday.

H. J. Bean and family of Richfield

Mrs. Dr. Olstin was over from Manti